- Train, mentor, and supervise staff to ensure high performance.
- Maintain a welcoming and attractive environment for guests.
- Organize and promote special events and special promotions.
- Work with ownership to manage positive financial performance.
- Ensure compliance with health and safety regulations.

Requirements:

- Proven experience as a General Manager or similar role in hospitality, preferably in a wine bar or restaurant setting.
- Strong knowledge of wines and the wine industry.
- Exceptional leadership and organizational skills.
- Excellent communication and interpersonal skills.
- Ability to work flexible hours, including evenings and weekends.
- Proficiency in managing budgets, financial reports, and inventory.

Benefits:

- Competitive salary and performance bonuses.
- Paid time off and vacation days.
- Professional development opportunities, including wine education.
- Dynamic and inclusive work environment.
